BAPTISM OF THE LORD

After having celebrated the Epiphany of Jesus' childhood, today we celebrate, in the baptism of the Lord, the Epiphany which opens its public life. Thus ends the Christmas season, during which we proclaimed our faith in the divinity of Jesus Christ and in our own divinization in Christ.

Live the baptism received

If we are already holy by baptism, how can we become so in everyday life? I would answer spontaneously: by living the baptism received. "Become what you are," say the philosophers. For Christians, the old adage can be formulated as follows: become God, which you received at baptism. This human and Christian becoming passes through Christ, true God and true man. He is the Holy One of God who has "the words of eternal life" (Jn 6:68). He sends the Spirit who gives us the necessary breath to live the Beatitudes, charter of Christian life and holiness. The human heart is complicated. He is free to be God's rival or his partner, to ignore or love him, to see him as a loving Father or as a vengeful God. Created in the image of the three times holy God, we are called to be like him. (Jacques Gauthier)

Saint Teresa of the Infant Jesus

The spiritual journey of Thérèse of the Child Jesus, who is from Lisieux in France, reminds us that we are all called to holiness. This call has been part of our baptismal DNA since the day we were immersed in the death and resurrection of Christ, thus participating in the holiness of God.

What is the secret of this young Norman, unknown in her lifetime, who died of tuberculosis at the Carmel of Lisieux at the age of 24 on September 30, 1897?

Her secret: to live of unbroken love.

Prayer of St. Teresa of the Child Jesus

My God, I offer You all the actions that I am going to do today, in the intentions and for the glory of the Sacred Heart of Jesus; I want to sanctify the beats of my heart, my simplest thoughts and works by uniting them with its infinite merits, and to repair my faults by throwing them into the furnace of his merciful love. Oh my God ! I ask You for me and for those dear to me the grace to fulfill perfectly Your holy will, to accept for Your love the joys and sorrows of this passing life so that we may one day be gathered in Heaven for all eternity. Amen
