What is the Good News that the readings of today bring us?

The Word of God drives out evil and causes life to spring forth.

Jesus came to set us free...

«If God existed, there would be no evil in the world.»

How often we can hear such a reflection. How often it even springs from our thoughts, when the burden of suffering becomes too heavy.

It is true: there is a contradiction between God and evil. That is why, in this Sunday's Gospel, Mark shows that, where Jesus speaks, «the evil spirit» flees.

The evil Spirit is the one who opposes the holiness of God... the devil, the liar, the grapple will say the Holy Curé of Ars. Jesus is not afraid to talk about it and face it!

Jesus comes to set us free. We would like the proclamation of the Kingdom of God to be a no-fight and easy one... It is not. Our fight is one of LIBERATION.

Liberation from our passions, our slavery, some crushing situations. Liberation from any evil spirit who objects to the will to do the will of God etc...

What does it mean to say, « Deliver us from evil »?

Answer from the Youth catechism of the Catholic Church (YOUCAT)

“Evil” in the Our Father does not mean a negative spiritual force or energy, but rather Evil in person, whom Sacred Scripture knows by the name of « the tempter » », “the father of lies”, Satan, or the devil.

Comment:

Only Sacred Scripture calls things by their name: “For we are not contending against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the power, against the world ruler of this present darkness”(Eph 6:12)

The petitions from the Our Father “deliver us from evil” brings all the misery of this world before God and begs God Almighty to free us from all evils.
