GOD DOES NOT CONDEMN THE WORLD: HE LOVES US

God did not come to judge the world, even less condemn it, but he loves us.

We are in front of this Jesus and it is ourselves who exercise judgment by choosing to follow Jesus. If we do not take the option of following Jesus, in love, we prefer darkness to light. As we sometimes say, we miss the boat...

FAITH IN JESUS IS THE SOURCE OF SALVATION.

We know that Jesus was raised on a cross. This cross can save us if our gaze is charged with faith. Faith is necessary to receive salvation.

WHO CHOOSES THE LIGHT WILL BE SAVED.

To act according to the truth is to seek to live in harmony with its depth, a place where God's love dwells. It is to allow oneself to be guided by this love so that our life may be shared, served, forgiven, listened to, given... Moreover, for John, the truth is love.

ETERNAL LIFE:

Yes, I believe in eternal life! One of the most serious questions of all men of all time is: "Does your life on earth end in the nothingness of death... or is there another life?" Jesus answers us in today's Gospel. "Will you come to my light? Will you not perish?" Do you want to be saved?" (Noël Quesson)

A BIT OF HUMOR!

Why do we ask God for our daily bread?
To have new bread...

What does the big chimney say to the little chimney?
You're too young to smoke...
