

Easter 2021

Dear members of the Cathedral Parish:

As Lent and Holy Week come to their dramatic conclusion in the joyful Easter greeting, "Christ is risen! He is truly risen" I wish you the blessings of this joyous feast.

It has been a joy and a privilege to come to know you since my first arrival in December and my return to Hearst in early February. I have gotten to know your life of faith through the weekly celebrations and the occasional special feasts.

As I leave for several weeks in Ottawa, I entrust you to the competent hands of Father Aimé Minkala, who has returned after the formalities of renewing his passport in his homeland of Congo-Brazzaville. He will be assisted by Father Duolomane Okamba, whom you have gotten to know in recent months, with the support of Msgr. Villeneuve who remains in residence.

I have decided to name Father Minkala, Administrator of the Cathedral Parish with all the rights, duties and obligations of a parish priest. This comes into effect on Easter Sunday and is valid until changed by me or the future Bishop of Hearst-Mooseonee.

The priests of the cathedral and I recently met to plan the parish's pastoral outreach, especially to parents whose children are looking forward to receiving the sacraments of first Reconciliation, first Holy Communion and Confirmation.

I look forward to celebrating Confirmation with our youth, even if these occasions will be restrained by the health limitations in light of Covid-19.

At a recent meeting of the Temporal Affairs Committee, we considered the financial struggles the parish faces in light of the reduced attendance at Church services and diminished revenues. We realize, too, that the structure of the cathedral building will require significant maintenance measures in the coming years.

So, I wish to thank you for your generosity thus far and I encourage you to continue your financial support in the various ways that this is possible.

We should always keep in mind that God cannot be outdone in generosity.

God will give abundant blessings to those who support the Church's mission.

May Our Blessed Mother watch over you and Our Lord grant you and yours e graces and consolation of the Resurrection. Happy Easter!

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Terrence Prendergast, S.J.
 Apostolic Administrator
 Diocese of Hearst-Mooseonee
